

SMS Sunday Message: September 20

Good evening, Spartan Family! This is Matthew A. Mason, proud principal of Sandusky Middle School, and here is the Sunday Message for the week of September 21 - 25. This message has been forwarded to our SMS family via email and will also be available on our website under the Sunday Messages Tab.

- I would like to thank all of our families, students and staff who participated in our Tech Help and Google Classroom Support event. I hope families that were able to attend felt supported and more prepared for remote learning. There is a possibility of us doing this again, so please listen for event dates.
- Parents/guardians and students, tomorrow, Monday, September 21, you will receive an important message concerning how we will adjust remote learning to better support you and our staff at SMS. I will be sharing this information with our staff first tomorrow morning. You will receive more information tomorrow evening as well as throughout the week so that all of our SMS family are prepared for these changes. Again, we hope that these changes will provide a more realistic structure so that all involved are successful. Stay tuned!

Please check today's email, our Twitter account (@Spartans_SMS), our Facebook page and our website for more important information on school events. Again, this is Matthew A. Mason, and SMS is pleased to serve our community!
